The onboarding week

Most firms lose a week to onboarding. The intake call, the forms and the checklist each wait on someone else.

We cut that week by running one call, one form and one checklist, all owned by one person on the team.

What changed

Clients started work five days sooner, and nobody had to chase a missing form twice.

Start with the owner: one name next to every step of the onboarding checklist.